This valley was first settled eleven years ago by a company of Salt Lake and Utah people comprised mostly of "Mormons." There were ten wagons in the company. At that time the land was not surveyed but ranches were taken up by most of the company and a year or so afterwards the whole country was surveyed, and the valley has been settling up very rapidly since. We are located about three hundred miles north and a little east of Salt Lake City, and are forty-five miles from Rexburg, our

Willard, Boxelder County, April 10 .-

Returning from conference we found the ground covered with the "beauti-ful snow" to the depth of two or three inches and the thermometer showing the mercury about four degrees below freezing point. While the storm is doing much good in soaking the earth and supplying moisture to thirsty vege-tation, the possibility of the fruit crop being killed by frost creates some un-in full bloom. Here, where orchards vary in size from one to forty acres and constitute almost the sole dependence of many of the owners, the loss of the fruit crop means a sad diminuition of the annual income. We still hope, however, much may be saved.
